

Unveiling & Dedication

of the

Brampton War Memorial

In the Churchyard of St. Thomas',
Brampton,

by

His Grace The Duke of Devonshire.

Sunday, Sept. 18th, 1921.

At 3 p.m.

NATIONAL ANTHEM.

God save our gracious King,
Long live our noble King,
God save the King,
Send him victorious,
Happy and Glorious,
Long to reign over us ;
God save the King.

O LORD OUR GOD, arise,
Scatter our enemies,
And make them fall ;
Confound their politics,
Frustrate their knavish tricks ;
On thee our hopes we fix ;
God save us all.

Thy choicest gifts in store
On him be pleased to pour,
Long may he reign,
May he defend our laws,
And ever give us cause
To sing with heart and voice
God save the King.

HYMN.

O God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of Thy Throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure ;
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting Thou art God,
To endless years the Same.

A thousand ages in Thy sight
Are like an evening gone ;
Short as the watch that ends the night
Before the rising sun.

Time like an ever rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.

O God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home. Amen.

I AM the Resurrection and the Life, saith the Lord: he that believeth in Me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die (S. John xi. 25, 26.)

GREATER love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends (S. John xv. 13).

I HEARD a voice from heaven, saying unto me, Write, From henceforth blessed are the dead which die in the Lord: even so saith the Spirit; for they rest from their labours.

PSALM XLVI.

Deus noster refugium.

GOD is our Hope and Strength: a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth be moved: and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea.

3 Though the waters thereof rage and swell; and though the mountains shake at the tempest of the same.

4 The rivers of the flood thereof shall make glad the city of God: the holy place of the tabernacle of the most Highest.

5 God is in the midst of her, therefore shall she not be removed: God shall help her, and that right early.

6 The heathen make much ado, and the kingdoms are moved: but God hath shewed His voice, and the earth shall melt away.

7 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our Refuge.

8 O come hither, and behold the works of the Lord: what destruction He hath brought upon the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease in all the world: He breaketh the bow, and knappeth the spear in sunder, and burneth the chariots in the fire.

10 Be still then, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, and I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is with us: the God of Jacob is our Refuge.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be, World without end. Amen.

THE LESSON.

Revelation, xxi. 1—7.

AND I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.

2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God.

4 And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.

5 And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.

6 And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely.

7 He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

UNVEILING

MEMORIAL

BY

HIS GRACE

THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE.

LAST POST.

HYMN.

THE SUPREME SACRIFICE.

O valiant Hearts, who to your glory came
Through dust of conflict and through battle-flame;
Tranquil you lie, your knightly virtue proved,
Your memory hallowed in the Land you loved.

Proudly you gathered, rank on rank to war,
As who had heard God's message from afar;
All you had hoped for, all you had, you gave
To save Mankind—yourselves you scorned to save.

Splendid you passed, the great surrender made,
Into the light that nevermore shall fade;
Deep your contentment in that blest abode,
Who wait the last clear trumpet-call of God.

Long years ago, as earth lay dark and still,
Rose a loud cry upon a lonely hill,
While in the frailty of our human clay
Christ, our Redeemer, passed the self-same way.

Still stands His Cross from that dread hour to this
Like some bright star above the dark abyss;
Still, through the veil, the Victor's pitying eyes
Look down to bless our lesse; Calvaries;

These were His servants, in His steps they trod
Following through death the martyr'd Son of God;
Victor He rose; victorious too shall rise
They who have drunk His cup of Sacrifice.

O risen Lord, O Shepherd of our Dead,
Whose Cross has bought the man whose Staff has led—
In glorious hope their proud and sorrowing Land
Commits her Children to Thy gracious hand. Amen.

DEDICATION OF THE MEMORIAL.

IN the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.
Amen.

OUR Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in Heaven: give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our tresspassers, as we forgive them that tresspass against us: and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, for ever and ever.
Amen.

V. Our help is in the name of the Lord.

R. Who hath made heaven and earth.

LET US PRAY.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION.

OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, who for the salvation of the world didst suffer death upon the Cross, we most humbly beseech thee to bless, hallow and consecrate this Memorial Cross which we here dedicate, in memory of thy servants who gave their lives for their country and for freedom in the Great War; and to thy honour and glory who livest and reignest with the Father and the Holy Ghost, ever one God world without end. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, we commend to Thy loving kindness the souls of Thy servants who have given their lives to defend us. Accept, O Lord, the offering of their self-sacrifice, and grant to them with all Thy faithful servants a place of refreshment and peace, where the light of Thy countenance shines for ever, and where all tears are wiped away; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

OUR GOD of the spirits of all flesh, we praise and magnify Thy holy Name for all Thy servants who, having fought a good fight, have finished their course in Thy faith and fear; and we beseech Thee that, encouraged by their examples and strengthened by their fellowship, we with them may be found meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the Saints in light; through the merits of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

UNTO thy lovingkindness, O Lord, we commend all those who are stricken and suffering by reason of the war; the wounded and the overstrained, the disabled, the blinded, the homeless, and the oppressed; all who have been bereaved of those dear to them; all whose faith in Thee has been shaken by what they have seen or suffered. Strengthen them, O God, with Thy Holy spirit, and give them courage and hope. Help us to do our part in ministering to them; for the sake of Him who bore for us the pain and desolation of the Cross, Thy Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

HYMN.

On the Resurrection morning
Soul and body meet again ;
No more sorrow, no more weeping,
no more pain !

Here awhile they must be parted,
And the flesh its Sabbath keep,
Waiting in a holy stillness,
wrapt in sleep.

For a while the tired body
Lies with feet toward the morn ;
Till the last and brightest Easter day be born.

But the soul in contemplation
Utters earnest prayer and strong,
Bursting at the Resurrection into song.

Soul and body reunited
Thenceforth nothing shall divide,
Waking up in CHRIST'S own likeness, satisfied.

Oh ! the beauty, Oh ! the gladness
Of that Resurrection day,
Which shall not through endless ages pass away !

On that happy Easter morning
All the graves their dead restore ;
Father, sister, child, and mother,
meet once more.

To that brightest of all meetings
Bring us, JESU CHRIST, at last ;
By Thy Cross, through death and judgment holding fast. Amen.
